Wilkins Speaks On Limits of Stu. Council

President Eugene Wilkins addressed a Student Council meeting on Monday, May 8, on the subject of the individual Student Council president, President Wilkins closed his term of service by retiring. Council president, Anthony Conte.

Mr. Conte asked the President to come following a Council discussion to the limits of that body which arises when the President is in the position of the REFLECTOR - INDEPENDENT case and ruled that the matter had to be brought before the President's Advisory Council for final decision.

President Wilkins opened his speech with the reasons for the College. He said that the College exists for the students to learn and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.

An organization is necessary, Wilkins said, and pointed out that a pure democracy of 400 students is impossible. There has to be an organization of the whole, he said, without a student-faculty dichotomy. Students must be organized according to a policy.

Wilkins went on to speak about the Student Council Constitution. He said the present Council members did not know or understand the Constitution fully, since they had not been the organizers of it.

He criticized the first paragraphs of the Constitution because they go to the limits of recognized and recognized limits. He felt that it should be stated in a positive manner without delimitations.

He went on to speak about a specific case. It was the case of the Council, Council should be concerned about, and have control of all student conduct, Wilkins said. He asked the Council to see that the student funds are spent well. He also said that the Council should be informed of, and allowed to express itself in concern about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles, when Mr. Bartlett asked him the idea of good, Mr. Bartlett replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

On Monday, May 8, Mr. Bartlett told the President, that he had to see Dean O'Brien about the matter, which he proceeded to do during this third hour. President Wilkins, Dean O'Brien, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Bartlett were present at the meeting.

Mr. Larson read a report to the group consisting of the days Mr. Bartlett had leaned back in his chair, had put his feet on the rums of a chair, and had worn sunglasses on his face.

Mr. Larson specifically referred to two incidents, the first occurring during the week of April 27, 1961. According to the report, Mr. Larson had been commenting about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles. When Mr. Bartlett asked him about that, Mr. Larson replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

As President Wilkins had come to the group, he had stepped in to the President's Advisory Council for the statements of the President concerning the dismissal of student Bartlett. He said that no final decision was made, and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.

President Wilkins said that he had no definite statement to make concerning the dismissal of any student at the College.

On Monday, May 8, Mr. Bartlett told the President that he had to see Dean O'Brien about the matter, which he proceeded to do during this third hour. President Wilkins, Dean O'Brien, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Bartlett were present at the meeting.

Mr. Larson read a report to the group consisting of the days Mr. Bartlett had leaned back in his chair, had put his feet on the rums of a chair, and had worn sunglasses on his face.

Mr. Larson specifically referred to two incidents, the first occurring during the week of April 27, 1961. According to the report, Mr. Larson had been commenting about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles. When Mr. Bartlett asked him the idea of good, Mr. Bartlett replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

As President Wilkins had come to the group, he had stepped in to the President's Advisory Council for the statements of the President concerning the dismissal of student Bartlett. He said that no final decision was made, and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.

President Wilkins said that he had no definite statement to make concerning the dismissal of any student at the College.

On Monday, May 8, Mr. Bartlett told the President that he had to see Dean O'Brien about the matter, which he proceeded to do during this third hour. President Wilkins, Dean O'Brien, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Bartlett were present at the meeting.

Mr. Larson read a report to the group consisting of the days Mr. Bartlett had leaned back in his chair, had put his feet on the rums of a chair, and had worn sunglasses on his face.

Mr. Larson specifically referred to two incidents, the first occurring during the week of April 27, 1961. According to the report, Mr. Larson had been commenting about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles. When Mr. Bartlett asked him the idea of good, Mr. Bartlett replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

As President Wilkins had come to the group, he had stepped in to the President's Advisory Council for the statements of the President concerning the dismissal of student Bartlett. He said that no final decision was made, and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.

President Wilkins said that he had no definite statement to make concerning the dismissal of any student at the College.

On Monday, May 8, Mr. Bartlett told the President that he had to see Dean O'Brien about the matter, which he proceeded to do during this third hour. President Wilkins, Dean O'Brien, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Bartlett were present at the meeting.

Mr. Larson read a report to the group consisting of the days Mr. Bartlett had leaned back in his chair, had put his feet on the rums of a chair, and had worn sunglasses on his face.

Mr. Larson specifically referred to two incidents, the first occurring during the week of April 27, 1961. According to the report, Mr. Larson had been commenting about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles. When Mr. Bartlett asked him the idea of good, Mr. Bartlett replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

As President Wilkins had come to the group, he had stepped in to the President's Advisory Council for the statements of the President concerning the dismissal of student Bartlett. He said that no final decision was made, and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.

President Wilkins said that he had no definite statement to make concerning the dismissal of any student at the College.

On Monday, May 8, Mr. Bartlett told the President that he had to see Dean O'Brien about the matter, which he proceeded to do during this third hour. President Wilkins, Dean O'Brien, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Bartlett were present at the meeting.

Mr. Larson read a report to the group consisting of the days Mr. Bartlett had leaned back in his chair, had put his feet on the rums of a chair, and had worn sunglasses on his face.

Mr. Larson specifically referred to two incidents, the first occurring during the week of April 27, 1961. According to the report, Mr. Larson had been commenting about poorly written doctoral dissertations and literary journal articles. When Mr. Bartlett asked him the idea of good, Mr. Bartlett replied that Mr. Bartlett, Dean O'Brien, and Mr. Bartlett would be active in the following:

As President Wilkins had come to the group, he had stepped in to the President's Advisory Council for the statements of the President concerning the dismissal of student Bartlett. He said that no final decision was made, and that in order to acquire that knowledge, a certain amount of work is brought to the school. Learning takes place, he said, by an interaction of students, faculty and materials.
There Are Two More Months Till Exams

It is especially distressing to note that the Student Court of Newark State's campus has been criticized for its handling of a case. The specification of the complaint of one instructor, Mr. Bartlett, is that the court has been too lenient in its handling of a student who has been accused of plagiarism. In the specific case, the student was accused of submitting a plagiarized paper, but the court dismissed the accusation.

According to the President of the college, a student who is accused of plagiarism should be dismissed. However, the court chose to dismiss the accusation, which has led to criticism of the court's handling of the case. The student in question was found not guilty of plagiarism, and the court's decision has been upheld by the college administration.

The criticism of the court's handling of the case has led to a discussion of the role of the Student Court in the college community. Some members of the college community have argued that the Student Court should have more power to handle cases of plagiarism, while others have argued that the court should be more lenient in its handling of such cases.

In response to the criticism, the college administration has stated that it will review the procedures of the Student Court to ensure that they are fair and just. The college administration has also stated that it will continue to support the Student Court in its efforts to maintain a fair and just system of justice within the college community.
Modern education vs. Democracy

by Robert Schuettler

In this year One of the New Frontier, we come in the college which by the objective observer would deny that the example educators are sending to America’s children. None of this money would go to the poor students. The President is precisely the sort who would have arisen, in another Frontier, there are few, if any, of the intellectuals that they might have used into enroll in the state schools. The parents of private students who prefer to attend their economic origins. The educational bureaucrats who proclaim that they alone know what is best for the student, who proclaim that they alone know what is best for the student, who do not care. Nevertheless, that the President would say, "I have no one, unless he believed in the philosophy of the best in the nation." Perhaps the most widespread discrimination is poor but is also presumptuous discrimination. Growth in education is also laying down as dogma all over the country's responsibility to speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy is also laying down as dogma all over the country's responsibility to speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarianism" democracy. Perhaps the most widespread among us we speak to a cultured person in a word, "We have a common kind of totalitarian..."
by Robert Stryker

What complexity, diversity, unincorruptible...

There is:

In the uncharted spaces in the human mind. New York, and the drive,
The operations, the machinations
Of this palatable machine, In between the tangible and the void.

Intangible, unknown, some reach to grasp
it as the very form of human reality.

Lurks the answer
The essence of existence.

Within their hollow vessel
The child's empty brain, Smudgers, smudgers, blow out... To no avail.

The answer to the mystery of life
Comes through travail.

Modern Ode to the Modern School
by John Erskine
Just after the Board had brought the schools up to date
To prepare you for your Life
Without teaching you one superfluous fact
Jim Reilly presented himself to the audience.
He was a bricklayer.

He knew no much about brick-laying
That the contractor made him a partner.

And he knew nothing about being a partner
He spoke to the School Board.

And they put in a night course
On how to be a foreman.

And he became so excellent a foreman
That the contractor made him a partner.

And he knew nothing about figuring costs
Nor about bookkeeping.
Not even a bit.

And he was too proud to go back
To the book store.

So he hired a tutor
Who taught him these things and Nothing more.

SCID Test for N.C. Students
At the time of this writing the SCID office located in the student center building, is offering the following shows to the students at discount prices: The Phoenix Production for $7.00, Modern Ode to the Modern School for $7.00, and the Pulitzer Prize. Also on exhibit are Donald Sinden and a distinguished... And that is all.
Voters To Meet

Doug has been active in Newark the Student Body President Con­ past weeks. .

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced their plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.

April Fool's Joke Proves Not So Funny

The Delta Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presented a benefit show on Friday night in order to raise funds for a trip to Europe. The show was well attended and the proceeds will go towards the travel expenses for the group.

UP-S - The OWL weekly

The Union Women Voters of University College, a student organization, has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Union Women Voters To Meet

The Union Women Voters of University College has announced its plans for the coming year. They will continue to advocate for women's rights and will hold meetings to discuss relevant issues.

Russia Denounced

The three professors spoke in a university after more than 200 students and staff of the University of Minnesota, saw the

William Howard, speech pro­

They are, he said, "extremely intelli­

Doug has been elected to the role of student body president. He is a senior at special interest group and has been involved in student affairs for the past year. He is looking forward to leading the student body in the upcoming academic year.
W.R.A.

Up and coming on the Women’s Recreation Association schedule is the week that will be held on Wednesday evening at 6:15 in the main dining room of the College Center. At this annual affair the W.R.A., reviews its years accomplishments and prepares for the coming year, Since its inception in 1957 the association has been awarding the D’Angelo trophy to a woman who has shown the greatest potential who in the estimation of its members is most likely to foster their aims and high standards. At this banquet the newly elected officers for the coming year will be announced as well as the previous winners, In the pursuit of outstanding achievement in extra-curricular activities.

M.A.A.

The Men’s Athletic Association of Newark State College will hold their annual meeting on Thursday evening at 7:00 in the college center on Thursday evening May 18. All men are invited to attend this gala affair in which guest speakers will be on hand to add to the prestige of this ceremony. Awards will be given to the champions of the basketball and football, election for the year 1961-62 will also be on the agenda. The three men who are interested in being on the soccer team next fall to be at the next meeting.

Newark State Loses Two

Paterson scored a run in the last of the 9th to top Newark State 8-7 on Thursday afternoon at North Halston on May 8. A single by Dick Forkert and an error at second base allowed the winning run to score. Joe Maida pitched a one hitter, it clinched a Paterson sweep of the doubleheader. Paterson will have 12 games left in the schedule, Newark State will have 12. Paterson will play on Saturday, May 9, at 2:00 at home against Jersey City and on Monday, May 11, at 1:30 against Berkeley, New Jersey.

What with graduation pictures in the editor, this editor feels great sorrow that those two who lost their lives in the Civil War, and Houseman will no longer be present, to give color to the NIC sporting scene. These two young men were a great help in the set of the rarety in sports, skill, intelligence and grace. No other two could have so courageously meet on the truth of the matter and in the face of the laws and displayed such profound loyalty and valor. Alas these two fair fellows were killed in the 9th when Cris Pohn walked with the ball, killed Corliss’s double, a walk, and a hit baseman loaded "the road," and left "the road," and left a scoreless tie at 1-1.