College Radio Talks Continue
Phases of College Life Revealed to Public
Thursday afternoon, March 6, from 4 to 4:30, Roy Daniels, president of the Newark State Teachers College and who teaches in the English department, a talk on "The College Student's View of the University" will be broadcast. The following week, March 13, Edward Amby, president of the Board of Trustees, will broadcast a talk on "The Role of the College in the National Defense Program." March 20, Dr. Carroll Rose Fraenken's "Another Language" will be broadcast. Dr. Fraenken is associate editor of the department of Modern Languages.

From left to right, Charles Di Pace, Kathleen Narayan, Frances Powers, and Peggy Sarasohn will be guests at Memorbilia, to discuss the benefits of modern Sino-Japanese warfare upon the oriental theater and art. A discussion of much interest to teachers.

Defence Views Are Sought
At a recent meeting of the National Defense Committee presided over by Mr. Dickey it was decided that a poll of company members of the Newark State Teachers College to determine the general attitude in regard to questions of National Defense.

A poll would enable us to find out what the students may consider they can help. The National Defense Committee that the students will desire to have a panel discussion.

Questions Submitted
1. Do you favor all out aid to Britain?
2. Do you favor a more active defense program for Newark State Teachers College in addition to our international defense program? What sort of defense, such as first aid courses, knitting?
3. Do you think that there should be a greater stress on the national and moral defense activities in the classroom?
4. Do you favor speakers from military encampments to present up to date history of our government in its military preparations?
5. Are you willing to participate in a panel discussion on the nature of our defense work in this college?

Defence Plays
For the entertainment of the student body, the newly formed Defence Dramatic Associates has prepared a play, "The Fighting Sargasso." This is the fourth in a series of plays dealing with the history of the Orient. The purpose of the play is to acquaint the students with the different phases of the Orient and to emphasize their size and positive effect upon the Orientals. The play will be presented in the college auditorium.

Preparing Radio Scripts
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.

Defence Plays
Delegates of the Reflector staff to attend the Columbia Press Conference March 13-15 have been selected. Selections were made by the Reflector staff on the basis of the questions put forth in the Reflector during the past months. The judges are Ambrose Corcoran, editor; Elizabeth Dugger, administrative assistant; Elizabeth Gabry, business manager; James Coleman, sports editor; Eleanor T. Roy, news editor; Lillian Rasmussen, editor; Mary Abbot, Irene Gann, and Carmen De Marchie. The scripts will be prepared by speaking or writing.
Page Two

REFLECTOR

Official Student Newspaper
Published Monthly at STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE NEWARK, N. J.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Amberly Courage, '41

Business Manager
Ted Gabry, '41

Assistant Editor
Laura Montano, '41

Assistant Editor
Dorothy Greenberg, '41

Assistant Editorial
Elden Abbott, Magneto Auld, Norma Cronyn, Laura Montano

Secretary
Lillian Eastman, '43

Staff
Dirk Kiefer, Margaret Auld, Norma Cronyn, Laura Montano

Other Officials
E. T. Corcoran, '41

President
Ted Gabry, '41

Associate Editor
Edwin Gildner, '42

 inefficient in the future up to a level with our science and art.

Our only hope for permanent place after this will to understand which comes through education.

so solution to international problems can only is as important as making guns.

Better Late Than Ever?

... and the regular assembly on Wednesday leaves us limp. We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

From the standpoint of health it is bad on the eyes. One on the speaker and one on the oscillating door brings on a strained expression. Even if we can suppress our curiosity we cannot focus on the speaker as his head rotates from full-face to profile as he attempts to view his audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

Let's give us and our speaker an even break. If you attend, get there on time.

The World's Hope

If we face the facts squarely we come to the conclusion that at present education in America is in some ways beginning secondary in importance to military preparedness. This is unfortunate and highly regrettable. Of course, if Democracy, the stronghold of education, is to survive at all it must be able to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to focus on the audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

Better Late Than Ever?

... and the regular assembly on Wednesday leaves us limp. We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

From the standpoint of health it is bad on the eyes. One on the speaker and one on the oscillating door brings on a strained expression. Even if we can suppress our curiosity we cannot focus on the speaker as his head rotates from full-face to profile as he attempts to view his audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

Let's give us and our speaker an even break. If you attend, get there on time.

The World's Hope

If we face the facts squarely we come to the conclusion that at present education in America is in some ways beginning secondary in importance to military preparedness. This is unfortunate and highly regrettable. Of course, if Democracy, the stronghold of education, is to survive at all it must be able to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to focus on the audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

Better Late Than Ever?

... and the regular assembly on Wednesday leaves us limp. We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

From the standpoint of health it is bad on the eyes. One on the speaker and one on the oscillating door brings on a strained expression. Even if we can suppress our curiosity we cannot focus on the speaker as his head rotates from full-face to profile as he attempts to view his audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

Let's give us and our speaker an even break. If you attend, get there on time.

The World's Hope

If we face the facts squarely we come to the conclusion that at present education in America is in some ways beginning secondary in importance to military preparedness. This is unfortunate and highly regrettable. Of course, if Democracy, the stronghold of education, is to survive at all it must be able to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to focus on the audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

Better Late Than Ever?

... and the regular assembly on Wednesday leaves us limp. We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

From the standpoint of health it is bad on the eyes. One on the speaker and one on the oscillating door brings on a strained expression. Even if we can suppress our curiosity we cannot focus on the speaker as his head rotates from full-face to profile as he attempts to view his audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

Let's give us and our speaker an even break. If you attend, get there on time.

The World's Hope

If we face the facts squarely we come to the conclusion that at present education in America is in some ways beginning secondary in importance to military preparedness. This is unfortunate and highly regrettable. Of course, if Democracy, the stronghold of education, is to survive at all it must be able to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to focus on the audience. It has been rumored that our guest speakers are in many instances forced to cancel their succeeding week's engagements in order to recover from the tension induced in the muscles of the neck by such extraordinary violent exercise.

We are unmoved by the dual demand on our attention when it lasts constantly over a period of fifteen minutes. The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.

The attempt to concentrate on the message from the rostrum and to identify each straggler as he creeps up the aisle results in a dichotomy that is anything but conducive to a pleasant mental attitude.
As Basketball Season Ends;

Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D.C., was cancelled beauty's plaque, clipped an all-star Freshman guard, went on a scoring rampage, Alumni and students gathered together. Recieving, going. Vitello, c 4 0

The game was played on Seton February 25th, only to lose the game, Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, played well, they did not count on the heroic performance by forcing his opponent to a third match. In the deciding game he was noseout by several points. In the second half this margin became

The Newark team tied up with each team playing each other twice. Instead of a single round-robin tournament, there will be a double round-robin tournament. The second game was a rough one.

The crisis started with the Newarkers fouled out of the game. They fell to the. second half this margin became

The second half was a fight to the finish with the Newarkers leading at the start of the game was

The second half was a fight to the finish with the Newarkers leading by seven points. Other total scores in the first half this margin became Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Robin Hood Archery Co.
The Archery Center of the East
971 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N.J.

Special Discount to N. J. S. T. C. Students

Phone Market 3-9605

Washington Game Cancelled As Basketball Season Ends; Varsity Loses to Seton Hall

Rutgers University College Noses Out Newark, 48-42, in Overtime Period; February 25;

Varsity Tops Alumni on Washington's Birthday

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The Newark Bladesmen Win Against Princeton J.V.'s

L.I.U. Forfeits Match

In a recent bout with Wagner College, the Montclair Bladesmen forfeited 19-21. Flexner, a new man of the team, gave a fine performance winning two of the bouts to top the Wagner men.

Montclair Tops Newark

In a match on Feb. 27 the Montclair State Teachers College fencing Squad defeated the Newark Bladesmen 8-4. Salo and Joyce of Montclair bid for top honors with two bouts each in their credit. De Plisus of Newark was top man on his team with two bouts against his name.

Rutgers Defeated by Montcl'l'r Women Victor's Over Newark Team

On Tuesday afternoon, February 25th, the Women's basketball club of Newark Teachers College played a formal game of basketball with the Women's Basketball team of Montclair State Teachers College. The score at the end of the uneven contest stood 49-12 in favor of Montclair.

For the first time in the history of this college, basketball rating tests for National Intramural or local rating will be given by State officials. Those passing these tests will be qualified to referee. The written exam will precede the oral exam which will take place on March 4. Several members of the Women's Basketball Club are taking these tests.

WASHINGTON CANCELLED AS BASKETBALL SEASON ENDS; VARSITY LOSSES TO SETON HALL

Rutgers University College Noses Out Newark, 48-42, In Overtime Period; February 25; Varsity Tops Alumni on Washington's Birthday

For the second successive year, the basketball game with Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D.C., was cancelled because of inclement weather. The near gale conditions which extended from this area all the way to South Carolina prevented the Washington players from making the trip.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The game was played on Seton Hall's new million-dollar gym on South twenty-third street. Coach Zweidinger used three full teams to try to stem the tide, but Seton Hall had too big a lead for it to do any good. With Regan and Conners scoring almost at will, the Pirates piled up a high first-half lead and coasted in by 42-35. In the second half Deibel, a six-foot, three-inch guard, which he has been doing, Frequency three times for eight points with long shots outside the seventeen foot line. Hepper scored three field goals from under the basket and added a free throw for seven points. For the Freshmen, little Coriasso was high scorer with five points.

The intramural-round robin got off with a bang last week with two very closely contested games. In the first game the sophomore class, last year's winners, defeated the Frosh in a great display of skill. The Frosh's plaque, clipped an all-star Freshman guard, went on a scoring rampage, Alumni and students gathered together. Recieving, going. Vitello, c 4 0

The game was played on Seton February 25th, only to lose the game, Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Robin Hood Archery Co.
The Archery Center of the East
971 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N.J.

Special Discount to N. J. S. T. C. Students

Phone Market 3-9605

WASHINGTON CANCELLED AS BASKETBALL SEASON ENDS; VARSITY LOSSES TO SETON HALL

Rutgers University College Noses Out Newark, 48-42, In Overtime Period; February 25; Varsity Tops Alumni on Washington's Birthday

For the second successive year, the basketball game with Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D.C., was cancelled because of inclement weather. The near gale conditions which extended from this area all the way to South Carolina prevented the Washington players from making the trip.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The game was played on Seton Hall's new million-dollar gym on South twenty-third street. Coach Zweidinger used three full teams to try to stem the tide, but Seton Hall had too big a lead for it to do any good. With Regan and Conners scoring almost at will, the Pirates piled up a high first-half lead and coasted in by 42-35. In the second half Deibel, a six-foot, three-inch guard, which he has been doing, Frequency three times for eight points with long shots outside the seventeen foot line. Hepper scored three field goals from under the basket and added a free throw for seven points. For the Freshmen, little Coriasso was high scorer with five points.

The intramural-round robin got off with a bang last week with two very closely contested games. In the first game the sophomore class, last year's winners, defeated the Frosh in a great display of skill. The Frosh's plaque, clipped an all-star Freshman guard, went on a scoring rampage, Alumni and students gathered together. Recieving, going. Vitello, c 4 0

The game was played on Seton February 25th, only to lose the game, Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Robin Hood Archery Co.
The Archery Center of the East
971 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N.J.

Special Discount to N. J. S. T. C. Students

Phone Market 3-9605

WASHINGTON CANCELLED AS BASKETBALL SEASON ENDS; VARSITY LOSSES TO SETON HALL

Rutgers University College Noses Out Newark, 48-42, In Overtime Period; February 25; Varsity Tops Alumni on Washington's Birthday

For the second successive year, the basketball game with Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D.C., was cancelled because of inclement weather. The near gale conditions which extended from this area all the way to South Carolina prevented the Washington players from making the trip.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The game was played on Seton Hall's new million-dollar gym on South twenty-third street. Coach Zweidinger used three full teams to try to stem the tide, but Seton Hall had too big a lead for it to do any good. With Regan and Conners scoring almost at will, the Pirates piled up a high first-half lead and coasted in by 42-35. In the second half Deibel, a six-foot, three-inch guard, which he has been doing, Frequency three times for eight points with long shots outside the seventeen foot line. Hepper scored three field goals from under the basket and added a free throw for seven points. For the Freshmen, little Coriasso was high scorer with five points.

The intramural-round robin got off with a bang last week with two very closely contested games. In the first game the sophomore class, last year's winners, defeated the Frosh in a great display of skill. The Frosh's plaque, clipped an all-star Freshman guard, went on a scoring rampage, Alumni and students gathered together. Recieving, going. Vitello, c 4 0

The game was played on Seton February 25th, only to lose the game, Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Robin Hood Archery Co.
The Archery Center of the East
971 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N.J.

Special Discount to N. J. S. T. C. Students

Phone Market 3-9605

WASHINGTON CANCELLED AS BASKETBALL SEASON ENDS; VARSITY LOSSES TO SETON HALL

Rutgers University College Noses Out Newark, 48-42, In Overtime Period; February 25; Varsity Tops Alumni on Washington's Birthday

For the second successive year, the basketball game with Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D.C., was cancelled because of inclement weather. The near gale conditions which extended from this area all the way to South Carolina prevented the Washington players from making the trip.

The Blue and Gray closed its basketball season on Friday afternoon, by taking a bad beating from Seton Hall's Junior Varsity.

The game was played on Seton Hall's new million-dollar gym on South twenty-third street. Coach Zweidinger used three full teams to try to stem the tide, but Seton Hall had too big a lead for it to do any good. With Regan and Conners scoring almost at will, the Pirates piled up a high first-half lead and coasted in by 42-35. In the second half Deibel, a six-foot, three-inch guard, which he has been doing, Frequency three times for eight points with long shots outside the seventeen foot line. Hepper scored three field goals from under the basket and added a free throw for seven points. For the Freshmen, little Coriasso was high scorer with five points.

The intramural-round robin got off with a bang last week with two very closely contested games. In the first game the sophomore class, last year's winners, defeated the Frosh in a great display of skill. The Frosh's plaque, clipped an all-star Freshman guard, went on a scoring rampage, Alumni and students gathered together. Recieving, going. Vitello, c 4 0

The game was played on Seton February 25th, only to lose the game, Newark-I 88 Halsey St., Newark, N.J.

The Robin Hood Archery Co.
The Archery Center of the East
971 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N.J.

Special Discount to N. J. S. T. C. Students

Phone Market 3-9605
Three Industrial Arts Men Display Ambition in Avocational Interests

There are still some ambitious men left in this world and it seems that practically all of them are in Newark State Teachers College. When you consider that Jim Coleman, sophomore; and Paul Sauls make up the program committee and that Ambrose O'Connor, and James Coleman; Pearl Page, Eleanor McCoy, Selma Goldstein, and Kathleen Narozny and Aileen Begdasco, Jean Davidson, Mildred De Mott, Mary A. Berezin, have volunteered to assist in Industrial Arts and Victor Bohsen builds model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.

Jim Coleman and Pat Doherty are at present assisting in Industrial Arts where they are making good arrangements. Dr. Marion E. Shea, and Mr. John W. Hess, have volunteered to assist in Industrial Arts and Victor Bohsen builds model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.

Three Industrial Arts Men Display Ambition in Avocational Interests

The Class of '43 will bid everyone farewell at the Senior Assembly sponsored by the Psychology Club of Newark State Teachers College, held in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance will be planned on a St. Patrick's Day motif and there will be community singing for all.

"The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall" and the "Wearin' of the Green" March 14, when they hold the Sophomore Assembly, at which time model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.

Alvin Scott, assisted by William Henry Jr., is chairman of the dance committee, and which is under the chairmanship of Roy Daniels. The Class of '43 will bid everyone farewell at the Senior Assembly sponsored by the Psychology Club of Newark State Teachers College, held in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance will be planned on a St. Patrick's Day motif and there will be community singing for all.

"The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall" and the "Wearin' of the Green" March 14, when they hold the Sophomore Assembly, at which time model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.

Alvin Scott, assisted by William Henry Jr., is chairman of the dance committee, and which is under the chairmanship of Roy Daniels. The Class of '43 will bid everyone farewell at the Senior Assembly sponsored by the Psychology Club of Newark State Teachers College, held in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance will be planned on a St. Patrick's Day motif and there will be community singing for all.

"The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall" and the "Wearin' of the Green" March 14, when they hold the Sophomore Assembly, at which time model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.

Alvin Scott, assisted by William Henry Jr., is chairman of the dance committee, and which is under the chairmanship of Roy Daniels. The Class of '43 will bid everyone farewell at the Senior Assembly sponsored by the Psychology Club of Newark State Teachers College, held in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance will be planned on a St. Patrick's Day motif and there will be community singing for all.

"The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall" and the "Wearin' of the Green" March 14, when they hold the Sophomore Assembly, at which time model airplanes, it ought to make you feel proud of the energetic men that the college possesses.