Mr. Dickey Addresses Frosh

The last of seven orientation meetings for freshmen and transfer students will be held in the auditorium on Wednesday, October 25, during fifth hour. Mr. John Dickey, head of the Math Department, will address the students. His topic, "Study Methods for Future Teachers," will be interesting to all students, but especially those planning to major in the education field.

Rifle Club's presentation went over with a big bang (or two). They had on hand such personalities as Annie Oakley and Calamity Jane who exchanged shots over our balcony right before our eyes and had to be carried to the Health Office where Miss Brooks saved her life by amputating her tympanic membrane. Terry Lecom, editor-in-chief of the Reflector staff, then told us of the need for students to work in various capacities on the Reflector staff. The Memorabilia was represented by Mary Brady who is in search of ambitious young folk who would make this year's yearbook the best ever. The Dance Studio Club served us a tasty snack. It was only Tea for Two but it really went a long way.

We all enjoyed it and if I wasn't so old and stiff I'd hop right out and join the girls in a Mazurka.

Editorial

The "whole is made up of its individual parts."

The program at N.S.T.C. is made up of five distinct curricula; General, Elementary, Arts, Industrial Arts, and Handicap. A total of seven hundred and ten students are enrolled in the college's curricula. It is not easy for all of us to stay together. There are many factors constantly hammering at the "oneness" of the college, Newark State, because of its very nature, a commuting college, sacrificed the unity of which campus colleges boast.

Guilds, clubs, and section parties all tend to separate and blur the entire picture. Only when these individual portions work and fit together nicely does the picture become a whole.

On the other hand, the Student Organization, All-College meetings, and class meetings all work toward a greater unity between the different levels and curricula at this college.

What we would like to see is a stronger bond all between the levels and all of the curricula. It's easy to say that there is a college and not just an institution for learning.

Remember — "The whole is made up of its individual parts."

Question: What did you get out of having a cigarette? "I'll stop you when you other day when we had our fire ritual..."

"I smoke too many cigarettes... I don't want to have a metal plated x-ray like my friend did last year. Here he comes..."

Men's Guild

Muriel Rudd, Senior 6 in the General Elementary Curriculum and Larry Nebelkoff, Sophomore 3 in the Industrial Arts Curriculum were engaged on September 22.

Dr. Gifford G. Hale, with Miss Rudd is a graduate of Fairleigh-Dickinson Junior College where she was a Liberal Arts Major.

Donald N. Gravenhorst, senior, became engaged to Claire De Roon of Paterson. Miss De Roon attended Sherwood School and Rutgers University Junior Class is a new and interesting experience. Both the faculty and the students are outgoing and friendly.

Jr's to Observe

Five Sophomore sections are now receiving instruction in "The Principles of Teaching the Handicapped." This is the first of a very important program for Dr. Mase, Mrs. Helen Doele. On leave from the Nutley School System, Mrs. Doele is now teaching the same course to an extension class and has been a member of the faculty during the summer session. In addition to her work here, she is also the Psychologist for the Nutley School System.

Mrs. Doele, a graduate of Paterson Teachers College, is teaching a course in Pompom Lakes. Her husband is also in the teaching profession. After receiving her degree from Paterson, she continued her studies at New York University. She obtained her Master's Degree there and is now working on her Doctor's degree. Mrs. Doele is a member of the State Group for the Handicapped, the American Psychological Association, and is Chairman of the Essex County Psychological Organization.

When asked how she feels about N.S.T.C., Mrs. Doele replied, "This is the first of Sophomore Class is a new and interesting experience. Both the faculty and the students are outgoing and friendly."

F.T.A. to Play Host

The Future Teachers of America in line with the policy of our club, the members of F. T. A. club to visit N. S. T. C. will be hosted by the group from Lyndhurst High School.

The students will observe how teachers are trained by attending classroom sessions; they will participate in classroom activities with the Tudor Room and Dr. Whitman. Dr. Wilkins and Mr. Smith will be ready to answer any questions on this high school program. In addition our F. T. A. members will act as guides for those who will go on a tour of the building.

God Bless Mr. X-Rays

Blue Mondays, Mondays aren't always blue. No I think not, not after October 16, was tined with a little red—the red which was found on the faces of the girls who suddenly found their little white paper caps splitting down the sides. Oh, cruel, cruel world, nothing but a little piece of paper to prevent this condition Mrs. Hughes was asked to spend more time in that room and to act as hostess and finally to have the x-rays taken. We will have to be patient. Oh, well, I'm free again.

Morms Weighs Dec. Play

"Got a cigarette?" It does not matter right now, but if you do have one, it will be discovered and removed by the organized five hundred members of this college that smoke! In numbers alone, it is readily seen that the smoking situation at N.S.T.C., is a problem. Until a few weeks ago, the Tudor Room was constantly littered with cigarette butts and ashes. As a result of this condition Mrs. Hughes was asked to spend more time in that room and to act as hostess and finally to have the x-rays taken. We will have to be patient. Oh, well, I'm free again.

Smokers, Please

Sharps & Flats

By Carmen Cicero

Oo-ba-pa-dah! have you heard the cool sounds emanating from the music room? Not Bach, Beethoven, or Brahms, but George Shearing, Oscar Peterson, and Dizzy Gillespie. If you do want to dig the greatest Hop this side of Birdland, just drift past room 34 and you'll flip when you 'see the sounds are the end. This ter the Mr. Gerrish is trying to cultivate a basis of judgment for progressive American jazz so that you no longer will be able to find people wandering out of room 34 whistling "In the land of ou-bla-doo" instead of "I'm looking over a Four Leaf Clover". Of course, that doesn't mean that any of the great old masters will be neglected; on the contrary, there will be plenty of long-haired stuff but . . . if you want to be a musician and have a background from Bach to Bop, latch on to what's happening in the music room . . . I'll bet "Downbeat" you'll be stoned by the crazy sounds.

Rounds the College

Surge of counseling parties taking over the Tudor Room . . . first time in N. S. T. C's history that eighty students had to be reassigned in new counseling groups . . .

If you're complaining about your schedule, stop a minute to pity some of the poor Frosh! On some days their classes are scheduled to begin at 8:15 in the morning and finish up at 4:30 in the afternoon! "There ought to be a law!"

Didja know that N. S. T. C. has the second largest enrollment of all State Teacher Colleges in New Jersey? (This includes extension and summer classes). There will be no mid-semester entrants this year for that reason.

Strike up the band . . . the Juniors are finding out about the musical instruments used in the primary grades and they are going about it wholeheartedly. If you want to see mature adults playing like kids . . . and enjoying it . . . stop in room 34 sometime! It's a sight for any psychiatrist.

Will the person who left his cigar butt reposing in a desk in Room 30 kindly pick it up? It's awfully hard on the confirmed smoker who sits there during a lecture and has to stare at this reminder of a blissful smoke . . . what next?

Court Sits - On Me

This is what we come to college for? An education we expect, a Supreme Court we get. Who knows that when my momma told me I would learn, it would be done under martial law. If you turned around the wrong way, you got a summons. If you got a summons, you were to go to court, you put on trial. Who could concentrate on bridge with this hanging over you? Better you should have taken law in stead of teaching! Maybe then I would have learned how to assail without having to wear any thing around my neck for the next ten years. Better I should have been a warden!

Travesty on Jusage

"It Ain't Hay"

Have you ever wondered who balances the books of your Student Organization? Who spends all of Monday afternoon signing checks? Who organizes the financial records of all the clubs and keeps everything running as smoothly as anyone, especially Mr. Zwedinger, could want? you'll find your answer to two appointed officers of your Student Organization the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer. These offices are now capably filled by Margaret Farrey and Rita Paterno.

In the past, a yearly stipend of four hundred dollars has been paid to these officers. This year, in recognition of the time and energy they devote to the Student Organization and what they have raised to fifty dollars. This increase was recommended by the Budget Committee, and approved by the Student Council at the October 9 meeting.

Cage Season Starts Sans Eight Vets

Jannerone to Coach Nine

Basketball coach Gus Jannerone will direct the baseball squad next spring it was announced last week by Chief D'Angola. Jannerone will have twelve returning lettermen as a nucleus to build his squad. The former Queen of Peace men's basketball coach is presently working on next year's schedule. Games with Newark College of Engineering, Montclair Teachers, Paterson Teachers, Bloomfield, Fairleigh Dickinson, Jersey City Teachers, Newark Rutgers are in the process of being booked.

Hoopsterines Begin Season

October 19 will be the big day for women's basketball aspirants. At 3:30 the female hoosiers will inaugurate the 1950-51 season. Teams formed from members within the club are coached by Miss Elise Schneider. "Bunny" as she is fondly called by team members also coaches St. Michael's Cagers. All women students interested in basketball are invited to attend this practice.

The club officers are: President, Ross McCann, Jr.; Vice-President, Anne Brennen, Soph.; Secretary, Joan Callahan, Jr.; Corresponding Secretary, Mildred Coyne, Soph.

Intramural Teams Planned by Bowlers

The Bowling Club is planning a program of mixed intramural bowling contests. Participants were asked to sign up before October 17. The list of members is now being compiled. Teams will be organized and a schedule set up in the near future. The games are played at the Bowling Arena - across from the college. Fans are asked to watch the bulletin board for further announcements!

Officers for the club are: Manager Harold Reddersha and Captain Bibo Tomenson.

A Notice About Notices

The House Committee requests the student body to observe the following rule. When placing notices on the main floor bulletin board, please use the designated portion of the board. It makes it easier for others to find and read the announcements. All car rides and lost and found notes should be posted on the basement bulletin board. Not only will the boards look neater but your notice is bound to be read!

By the way, would you like a "Newark State" jacket? One of your delegates has brought the idea of uniform jackets to the attention of the Student Council. Due to lack of time at the last meeting, the matter has been postponed, and will be discussed this Friday. Meanwhile, there's time for you to brief your section leader on your feelings on this subject. Let your representatives know what you're thinking about school matters, so they can air your ideas!

Clubs Parade

Nu Delta Kappa was represented by Doree Denburg. I know it will be hard for the female members to find and read the notices on the main floor bulletin board, please use the designated portion of the board. It makes it easier for others to find and read the announcements. All car rides and lost and found notes should be posted on the basement bulletin board. Not only will the boards look neater but your notice is bound to be read!

Seniors Smile Pretty

Signs of losing our Seniors are pretty evident. Why only on October 4, 5, 6 the Seniors assembled in the auditorium to take a passport photo for the yearbook. Questions such as "Is my hair all right?" "May I wear my pearls?" "Is my smile too wide?" and "Is my face on straight?" were present as usual. The Delmar Studio from New York who did a wonderful job on last year's Memorabilia took the photos for the 1951 edition of the yearbook.

Music, Music." The girls might well pass for those mythical sirens who lured sailors of old to watery graves with their beautiful singing.

I know it will be hard for the Freshmen to choose a club when there are so many fine ones to join. The near future. The games are played at the Bowling Arena - across from the college. Fans are asked to watch the bulletin board for further announcements!

Officers for the club are: Manager Harold Reddersha and Captain Bibo Tomenson.

On October 2, the cage squad had their initial practice of the season. Coach Gus Jannerone and Athletic Director Joseph D'Angola looked pleased with the 1950-51 edition of Jannerone's disappointment eight veterans from last season's squad failed to return. Jack Smith, a key man last year, will have to give up the sport because of a nose injury suffered last season. Babe Shapiro, Frank Markoten and Mike Webb all juniors will not appear in Silver Streak uniforms this year. Fritz Bueler is in the Navy while Joe Chagnon is in the Marine. Abe Kaplowitz has graduated while Fred Manta former Perth Amboy star quit school last semester.

However, Coach Jannerone is very optimistic over the possibilities of a banner year. Ernie Frino, former Central High star has been very impressive in early drills along with Jerry Morsch of Benedicts, Bill La Russo of Institute, and Wade Likins who starred at Paterson State Teachers.

Jannerone has three seniors returning and all undoubtedly will enjoy their best seasons in Silver Streak uniforms. Al Cohn, Dutch Den Bleyker and Ernest Hobbie are all beginning their fourth year on the squad. Cohn will be out to top the Essex County Parade this year. State's prolific scorer finished second last season to Bert Gattezler of Newark Rutgers. Sicurello finished with 444 points in 25 games while Cohn scored 376 points in 19 contests. Cohn, however, will be trying to hurdle a big objective. Al will try to surpass the 1,000 mark in scoring and thus become the first player in State's history to accomplish this feat.

Cohn is twenty years of age, stands 5 feet 10 inches and weighs 175 pounds.

Den Bleyker, State's 4-foot 5 inch center and former Clifton High performer will be Jannerone's key man off the boards. Den Bleyker's 22 point output against Trenton last year was his top performance. Coach Gus Jannerone has three seniors returning to the boys on the court team. Maybe we don't have the best cage squad in collegiate circles but we do have the best cheering squad.

Due to a strike at the Express Company some books have not arrived on time to be distributed at the bookstore. Please be patient when you are told your particular book is not yet in.

Starlight, star bright, first star, I've seen tonight. I wish I may, I wish I might write a good column tonight.

Oh, please don't let me down, you beautiful star, you.

In case any of you have been wondering about this George business, may I suggest you live a little. Stay up until 11 P.M. some night, watch Jerry Lester and you too can become a bean bag!

Gum Bye!
