Fine Arts Film Club To Present "The Idiot"

Scene from Lampian's "The Idiot"

"The Idiot," a film directed by George Lampian, based on the novel by Fyodor Dostoyevsky, will be presented by the Fine Arts Film Club at 7:30 P.M. on Saturday, October 6, in the Little Theater.

The 1948 film tells the story of a "dissolute prince" and his unsuccessful attempt to convey his blissful air of tranquility to a desolate society. The main theme of the film, according to Lampian, is "the kind of theme between the Idiot," the mortally beautiful beautiful and the passion-stricken Roquelet. "

"The Idiot" stars Gerard Philippe, Edwige Feuillere, and Lucien Cousin, Running 95 minutes, the film has French dialogue with English subtitles.

The NEW YORK TIMES review of the film stated that, "No one who loves fine screen literature should miss seeing it. A sensational new star, Gerard Philippe, plays the main part, and his delicacy of feature, his gentle and sensitive performance, together with his assumption of the sort of unassuming honesty and normality, makes him perfect for the role."

OTHER FILMS LISTED

Dr. Rice, faculty advisor to the Fine Arts Film Club, also announced that the films "Pather Panchali," a 1956 Indian production, is scheduled for presentation on November 10, at 8:00 P.M., at five film festivals, including that at Carnegie Tech.

TIME magazine described the film as "a pastoral poem dappled with the play of brilliant images and strong, dark feelings, a luminous revelation of Indian life in language that all the world was to understand."

"Alexander Nevsky" was a 1938 Russian film, starring the great Soviet stars Leonid Chernov and Eduard Tolkoff. "The Sound of Music" and "Waxworks" have been selected for viewing on October 17.

Controversy Arises Over Parking Rules

The rights of the Parking Commission to make new parking rules are under attack, without Student Council approval. The controversy stems from much controversy at the October 4th Council meeting, when the Parking Committee, Privileged Parking, the "Name Privilege Parking," the "Name Privilege Directory," and the orphanas adopted by Council this year, Substituting for chairman Jim Holman, reported the Parking Committee report. The new rules were outlined, and they included the determination that students must register their automobiles only for Student Council parking. The council was concerned that rule changes be noted for the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Miss Lombardo stated that the final presentation of the "Waxworks" re lesen on November 6, and would continue through December on a trial basis. Council approved this report.

"NAME" PROGRAM REPORT

At the October 4th Council meeting, with Council co-sponsor, along with Dean John Egan, the "Name" Program at NSC. The cost for each organization to "name" their parking spaces, the "No Parking" spaces will be $150.00, Fifty percent of the cost will be charged to the College. Two representatives will be appointed to set up the program, question was called, and the motion was carried.

Mr. Martin was appointed chairman of the Parking Committee and was given authority to appoint members.

N.A.A. DISCUSSION

A motion was made stating that the Council select three student body members to comprise a committee whose purpose would be to invite a retired co-ordinator to replace Lynn Reilly, the current co-ordinator. Jim Hyers then recommended that the motion be refused, the road failed, one person in favor of the motion.

Mr. John Sturges then made a motion that the motion be refused, the road failed, one person in favor of the motion.

Joe Santanello informed the Council of a recommendation which was made in regard to a student directory which was to be printed, that there would be addresses, and telephone numbers of all members of the student body. A motion was made to print the road, and the motion was passed and Dan Mahony was appointed chairman of this committee.

Grace Giraud suggested that Council be sent to the two orphan adopted by the "Name" Program, added, and passed with the stipulation that the first more than $50,000 be spent on the children concerned.

New Jersey Regional meeting of the National Student Association was held at Rutgers College on October 8, Joyce Daly, the new vice­President introduced the New Affairs Vice President, Mr. Zigo. During the past week, Mr. Zigo has been speaking at various schools through the state. One major importance of Mr. Zigo's speech was the setting of the standards of decent in the New Jersey Region. Later meetings passed at the Congress, there will be a meeting on October 25 at Trenton College to discuss this issue.

Number 1, there will be a Regional Conference, the primary function of the National Student Association and how the editor can help your school with information on speakers and seminar programs. Number 2, there will be a conference held in New Jersey, which will enable twenty students from the different NJ Regions to attend informative meetings of legislative committee, speak with Congressmen on the function of the our various legislative groups and facilities in Washington.

Carnival
by Andrea Lello

CARNIVAL, in the most heart-warning play one could possibly see. It filled with excitement and sorrow, and the two are beautifully interwoven. The action takes place in the outskirts of a town in southern Europe, one assumes in France. One can detect a brilliant character study, for carnival folk are usually the most extraordinary and yet, at the same time, quite common individuals to depict. Most of them are fun-loving and carefree, but we also find those persons who are quite egocentric and sentimental. Marco the Magnificent, portrayed by James Mitchell, is one such character. Mitchell, while being a well-known actor, is also gifted in painting. In CARNIVAL, Marco is the epitome of exhibition, with an eye for the ladies and for his own general welfare and fame. A young innocent woman, portrayed by James Mitchell, is one such character. Mitchell, while being a well-known actor, is also gifted in painting.

THE "FISHING" TRIP
by Joseph Capo

One day, on November 26, 1964, I went out fishing in a small lake. I had a little red hook, but no bait.

Eleven and a half the moring, I went out fishing in the little lake. It was a bright, sunny day, and there were many ducks in the pond. I had a little red hook, but no bait. I was sitting on the grass when I saw a fish jump out of the water. I quickly cast my hook, and the fish bit the hook. I pulled hard on the string, and the fish was finally caught.

An athletics and probation committee was formed last year by the college's basketball coach. The committee, which met regularly, heard cases and recommended action. James Hyne explained that this system of closer control over academic probation was not allowed to other students on campus and it was decided that an investigation be conducted. Mr. Hyne presented the information to the Council aware of the existing conditions and it was agreed to follow the letter to the recommendations of the committee.

"A good deal of interest has been shown on our campus regarding this new system of closer control over academic probation."

We would greatly appreciate your sending, at your earliest convenience, the names of members of the Campus Student Council, respectively.

We have formed the understanding of the following system of measuring students' academic performance: 1: All 'passing' and even all failing grades, i.e., all grades from 90 to 100 have the same value; viz, none. 2: All grades from 95 to 100 have the same value, viz, none. 3: All grades from 90 to 94 have the same value, viz, one. 4: All grades from 95 to 100 have the same value, viz, none. 5: All grades from 90 to 94 have the same value, viz, one. 6: All grades from 90 to 94 have the same value, viz, none. 7: All grades from 90 to 94 have the same value, viz, none.
Cagers Start Practice

Fred Ball, a sophomore transfer student from Union, Junior College is a definite threat to break into the lineup during the second semester. Due to Conference rules concerning transfer students, Fred-Peterson will wait until the fall semester to be eligible. The junior varsity should also have a promising, incoming talent.

Cars Restricted On Campus

Newark, N.J. - Dean of students John E. Huc, of the University of Pennsylvania has outlined reasons for the University’s policies with respect to student operated motor vehicles. Beginning with the 1961-62 academic year, the university will be able to operate motor vehicles on the campus in the city. The Newark State campus will be greatly improved and the enrollment forecasts for the next decade, which the University has estimated the students will make up for students from the area. The policies include the following rules: Any private group of five or more students may form a campus parking group. The regulations also provide leadership during the academic year. The Newark State campus is a college of all sports. The University has a policy similar to that which is in effect at Newark State.

From The Sports Desk... by KENNY & MAIER

The Modern Dance Club of Newark State is growing in leaps and bounds. On October 3rd, nine new members were added to the roster. A full schedule of dance classes is being planned for various dance trips, films, master dance programs, and a spring presentation on April 23rd. The last meeting of the W.R.A. softball season. The activity convenes every Tuesday at 3:00 P.M. behind the gym. W.R.A. Executives are giving much thought to the suggestions they received from the student body. So far the most popular was the presence of Miss Staples Periering at archery practice last week. A special thanks to Mr. D. Day optimist for the development of a women’s softball team for the upcoming season.

The loss of Richie Melvin to the soccer team has been a handicap difficult to overcome. Although it is early in the season the sophomores seem to be the outstanding class in intramural competition. After winning the softball championship, they came right back to win the throw in the opening round of the football competition. The new bleachers at the athletic field have a positive effect on the popularity of the school.
