3-27-1830

Abraham Baldwin to Sarah Kean, March 27, 1830

Abraham Baldwin

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.kean.edu/lhc_1830s
Counthtoun March the 27 1830

In consideration of the 18 in Russian in favoring me the execution of the promissory note for the sum of $2,000 held against me by the

Dr. and Mrs. Jacob N. Baldwin, the executors having a reading on Thursday last to make the sale of all of the Real Estate. The amount involved was

Bids over the amount of the mortgage over a period until the first day of April when it will be sold there is a man who wishes to buy that land near the premises a safe man that says he has not the money at present but will buy it to the in order and would pay the interest. The interest is not worn off which I have no doubt that he would as he is among working men and has a good property. It is a difficult time to sell this land and we find that we must give Leom Eady in order to make a complete settlement in the order.

It shall be paid up in the month of April and if the principal to pay on the promissory by changing the bond and mortgage in to the name of the seller it would be slavery or freedom to the interest to the Estate and as to confirm the promises would.

Keep a watchful eye of property as though I have an interest in it my self if it is consistent I should be released to hand it over to Mr. Baldwin in the name of trust.

A. F. Porter ton year

Jacob N. Baldwin

I am inUnique of Mr. Johnson a firm of my wagon and was informed it concurred a time I did not come to pay the interest on Brown and Mathern's Mortgage but in 60 days which for the amount and in 60 days compound interest for the last year.

Mr. Jacob S. Dodge

J. N. Baldwin