$30,000 Allotted for Parking Facilities

Council Meets New Members

At the last Student Council meeting it was announced that a sum of $30,000 has been allotted by the State of New Jersey for the paving and enlargement of parking lots. A committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of creating additional parking space on the college campus.

The library committee reported on the progress of the new building under construction. The committee has been working to ensure that the building meets the needs of the students and faculty. The new building will include additional study areas, computer labs, and group study rooms.

Election of Student Officers

The Student Body will soon be voting on the election of new officers for the Student Council. This is an important opportunity for students to have a say in the direction of their institution. The candidates will be discussing their platforms and plans for the coming year during the campaigning period.

The Highwaymen Choice of Name Program

The Highwaymen, a folk music group consisting of five members from Eastern States, will appear on campus. The group is known for its powerful harmonies and strong social commentary. The group's most recent album was released last year and received critical acclaim.

The group will perform at the Student Union on Friday, October 15th. Admission is free for students with a valid ID, and tickets will go on sale at the Student Union on Monday. The performance will feature a mix of traditional folk songs and original compositions.

Richard J. Hughes, Governor of New Jersey, will be the featured speaker at the All-College Faculty Meeting, on Wednesday, January 31. Governor Hughes will speak on higher education in the state. He will be the General Session which will be held in the Little Theater.

The program is being held in an effort to have the Resident Council of the College become better acquainted, to dispel the notion that problems of mutual concern are the concern of only the disinterested or disinterested who will discuss topics of interest to all.

Also included in the day’s activities is an address by Dr. Philip C. Lange, Professor of Education, Newark College, Columbia. Dr. Lange will speak on “Programming: Teaching Machines and Other Media.” A distinctive feature of the program will be the introduction of teaching machines as well as old exhibits. An opportunity will be afforded to examine the machines during a special tea session, on February 22, at 2:15 P.M. and includes dinner at 6:30 P.M. in the Main Dining Room of the College Center.

22 and 23, Newark State has participated actively for years in this association of 70 teacher’s colleges throughout the United States. Earnest Chark of the Education Department of the Newark State College is making the arrangements. Council also approved a request from the Student-Teacher Council to send the 10 Executive Board members to the meeting.

Doug Pecina challenged the authority of the Student Council to make rulings on the amount of money spent by the Student Council. He stated that he hoped no such stipulation can go out earlier, especially in order to aid both the college and the comanys honor society will “count all races and creeds.” A belief in this policy of this type is consistent with their new commitment of the brotherhood of man.

Final reports from the Dance Council and from the Student Council at the next meeting, with the committee terming the Corporation (His- December 29, 1961) a “huge suc- cess.” The Pecina said it was the best in a great while for any campus affair of this nature.”

The Success of the program was largely due to the dedication and hard work of Jim Hynes, Mr. Fred Marder, and the Exchange Committee.

In order to determine to what extent the above-mentioned pre-registration in what seemed like four or five hours really appreci- ating the new system, is an evid- ence of the confusion on the part of both the students and the faculty.

Military Solutions

It was Jawaharlal Nehru who said, "There is no military solution to India's problems. A military solution means, perhaps, destruction on a vast scale and the perpetuation of the Indian common defense." But today, in the wake of the China-India border conflict, former Prime Minister Nehru has changed his mind, that his great seeing-and his India—have gone astray.

Autumn's Past

Abie Atlas

In the Merrimack Common was a lone, tattered horse chestnut tree, whose autumn leaves, a symbol of the changing high, in an attempt to conserve itself, and in its phase of explosive growth and transition these years, the leaves fell like snow. Essential as written rules and due process are to the achievement of the values centered in the individual, only those on their track can help them achieve their association with educational purposes. For, what do we educate in a world where New State College is becoming an educational institution, a society might even seem to exist? Many of the traditional techniques, the "right answers", the "correct" personal-to-person "adjustments" of the little old legacies, the "good intentions", are no longer practical. At least their power of a new breed of kids to elude rules and to reject, observe. Therefore, it has been decided to provide under educational growth, the cultivation of the individual, the nurturing of his unique maximinimizing freedom, and administering justice and wisdom and non-violence. It is not, of course, that there is a double standard: military action is justifiable in a war of aggression, as a matter of doctrine, but not in all cases. The example it may serve to suggest that the Indian awareness have laid it true.

The Doctrines of Pacifism

There is no military solution to the world's problems. It is quite true, Mr. Nehru has long supported the United Nations as the correct social order for the world, and what he has done new—perhaps he believed that he wouldn't win. It was brought about by the General Assembly in the year 1945, and was the only way he could accomplish it. However, let us not be too hasty in reaching our answer, for we must not have been acutely aware of the growing potentialities of the Indian for good in our own lifetime. The Chinese have made it known, during the conference, that they would like to find that Mr. Nehru prefers to look at the whole picture— and, in an attempt to be fair, to come to a reasonable decision.

The Squires, after winning four straight games, lost in the closing seconds, 69-66.

The Peruvians, led by Ricardo Durante, put a 20-8 lead on the scoreboard. First-quarter action was slow, and the Squires failed to hit any shots. At this point, Coach Jim McGrady of Peru sent in an entire new team that was smaller but faster than his original unit.

Juan Cipriani scored three baskets in the last five minutes as the Squires failed to hit from the floor. In the second, Coach Jim McGrady of Peru sent in an entire new team that was smaller but faster than his original unit.

The Squires began to find the scoring in the second half, with Mike Duffy and Bill Kennedy being the leading scorers for Newark in the first half.

The second half was a see-saw battle with the Squires finally tying the Peruvians. The Squires were led by Bill Kennedy, who was high scorer for the Squires. The win was instrumental in stopping the Peruvian fast break, driving and hustling, coupled with timely baskets by Stan Davis and Bill Kennedy, as the Squires moved into a 53-48 lead.

The Squires, rolling at this time, had 26 and 24领先 in the D'Angola Gym by a score of 69-64. This was the Squires' sixth win in their last seven annotations.

The Squires beat the Peruvians 72-68 in overtime. The contest was preceded by a three-point play and two buckets. The Squires won their next two contests to earn the U.S. Coast Guard at home, 80-55 and Delaware Valley College Friday, January 19, 1962.

A much improved Squires basketball team won their fourth straight game of the season. Mike Duffy, who led the team with a 20-point lead, and Wilkes followed by two quick scores. Ricardo Durante and the Peruvians moved into a commanding lead with 20 seconds to play. John Wilkes hit a three-point play and a foul shot, for a seven point lead. With 8:33 left on the clock in the second half, the Squires led 60-56, and they continued to go ahead for a 20 point-half-time lead, 44-24.

The second half session was much the same as the first. The Squires continued to maintain the lead over the Peru team in the second half, and at 8:33 in the second half, they still managed a 20-point advantage, 64-44. At this time the Squires built a 60-30 victory for the Squires and it was the largest gap, point-wise, that the Squires team in the last two seasons. John Wilkes rebounded the ball against the Blue Wave netted his highest point of the game. The Squires hit 18 in.

Mike Duffy concluded, Bill Kennedy and Rossie Kearney made a boost to the Squire attack. Jimmy Baldwin and the spirited play of Bill Kennedy, a couple of promising freshmen, have been a boost to the Squire attack.

The present rule concerning athletic eligibility is unrealistic, but the change now under consideration is, we feel, NOT to the best interest of the college. A college athletic board should be mature enough to realize that the student-athlete should participate in sports. But we do know this is also unrealistic and we would like to propose what we think is a much better plan. Only eligibility of all players regardless of level should be the requirement. We feel that Council in their haste to accept the present ridiculous rule did not give careful consideration to their present proposal. As any new regulation cannot go into effect until after September, there is no reason that we cannot make a suggestion that will help the athletes and benefit the college at the same time.
