Know all Men by these presents, That I Susannah Hinshaw, of Elizabeth Town in the State of New-Jersey, late wife of the late John Hinshaw deceased, and I freely do constitute and appoint my son Peter Hinshaw to present in the City of Charleston, South Carolina, gentleman, my true and lawful Attorney for me and in my name and in behalf of all my estate, to sell, sell, and sell for the sale of all and every part of the said land to which I am entitled in the State of South Carolina or Georgia, in the said States of South Carolina or Georgia, or otherwise, and deed in fee simple or for any other estate or interest which I possess. I do also empower and appoint my said Attorney for me and in my name to receive any money due to me from any person or persons in South Carolina or Georgia, or elsewhere, in whatever right the same may be owing to me or to the use of the said estate, or otherwise, to receipt for the same in my name. I also do empower and appoint my said Attorney for me and in my name to give or sell the same in trust of the said states, may belong to me in either of the said states, of Georgia or South Carolina, or to give the same to the purchaser or purchaser, for the same in my name or otherwise. I hereby empower and appoint my said Attorney and in my name to do every act respecting any matter, thing, or thing in the said states or South Carolina, or anything in the said states or to do every act respecting any manner, thing, or thing in the said states, without my further orders, excepting any matter, thing, or thing in the said states. I do hereby empower and appoint my said Attorney for me and in my name to do every act respecting any matter, thing, or thing in the said states, without my further orders, excepting any matter, thing, or thing in the said states.
New York District.

Be it remembered that on the thirteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, personally appeared before me, Alexander Livingston, an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, the undersigned, T. J. Nieman, who being about to execute the above-named letter, had executed the same, for the purpose therein mentioned, to be recorded. Alexander Livingston.

Judge Livingston drew this instrument in haste just as he was going to Washington if it does not give you a right to lease any lands belonging to me, it was my intention that it should give you that power if you thought it most advisable to lease them.
