Dear Sir,

Mr. Philip Schuyler of Schuyler have been expending such large sums of money in buildings and improvements on their farms, that they find it extremely inconvenient to pay on the first installment now, and want indulgence till the fall.

I have made them pay interest upon the $503, which was due for interest on the 24th last, and enclose you a certificate of deposit of $516.24 to your credit in the Bank of Albany.

I am myself very sincerely persuaded to be more kindly remembered to your son.

P.S. Dear Sir,

With great esteem,

John T. Hussey
