John V. Henry to Peter Kean, July 5, 1828

John V. Henry
My dear Sir,

Mr. Boyd, one of the Sons of Alexander P. Schuyler, informed me ten or two years since, that he had disapproved in getting money from John B. Yale, Esq., to discharge your mortgage, could not yet effect a sale of the two lots of land.

The lots may yet comply with the terms offered, but you cannot calculate upon receiving anything from them, with certainty.

Yours truly,

John V. Henry
