My dear Sir,

The 5th of this month is the day set for the sale of the Schuyler property, under the Duncan mortgage. Whether the sale will be suffered, or an attempt be made to get rid of the com pound interest in chancery, I cannot say. But as it is necessary that I should be authorized to convey for you, I enclose a power of attorney for her execution, if that should be acknowledged, or proved to be valid. The latter may be done by an subscribing interest before a Commissioner in New York.

I remain

Yours with great esteem,

John V. Henry

Peter Van Rens

Ladies,

I presume I am only to add to the conveyance principal interest and charges.
