My dear Sir,

Your letter dated the 1st inst post marked at New York on the 5th was not received until the 6th inst. It was of no consequence, however, as the time under the power in the mortgage, was restrained by an injunction out of Chancery at the suit of Henry Ramsen and John B. Yates, claiming a mortgage from Harmonius P. Schuyler to Richard Duncan, assigned to the late Rev. D. Campbell, and a right, as I am told, to redeem, free from all compound interest.

I have entered your mother's appearance and demand all a copy of the bill. It must be served within 40 days from the 7th inst. but probably will be delivered in a day or two when I shall write to you upon the subject fully.

I am very faithfully,

Yours with great esteem,

John [signature]
