Gentlemen

I am much obliged to you for the information contained in your official information dated the 7th of this month. I must have procured to the receipt thereof furnished me with the intelligence concerning the attempts to counterfeit our Currency and paper money to see copies of the letter from Mr. Montclay and the Rev. Mr. Dunn in one of our morning papers.

Such measures have and will be taken as I hope will prevent any material injury to the Citizens of this State. The information concerning the cooper shall be duly attended to.
An authentic copy of the convention with the state of Georgia was directed by the lieutenant governor to be forwarded to you during my absence from the city, to review the militia, and delivered by the secretary of the state to Major Ruthe. The multiplicity of business has I suppose occasioned it to escape that gentlemen’s attention, and this copy however accompanies this letter which you will be pleased to have revised in the office of the secretary of Congress.
The printing of the laws of the last session of the legislature was attended with unusual delay, this
