Dear Sir,

I have left the deeds with Major Habersham to get Mrs. Habersham's signature on them, and then, when completed, you will please have them recorded. I would also wish the deed from Dollar to Mr. Habersham to be recorded, that the passage of the land may be clearly shown.

If as much money should come into your hands as will pay a surveyor for surveying the above lands, I should like to have it done, designating the swamp from the high land, specifying the quantity & quality of each.

I have also left the memorandum book.

With great sincerity,

I am,

[Signature]
