It was with great pleasure, I see? My dear madam, your letter of the 11th January, as I may flatter myself, by your silence on the subject of health, that you are all well. I wish most sincerely, my good friend, that it may be in my power to pay my respects to you and my dear before I depart from this State; but fear the contrary will happen, as it is proper that each member of the Federal Legislature should attend it as early as possible.

By letters from New York I'm informed that your cousin Alida is married to Geo. Armstrong, and that Mrs. General Scott has disposed of herself, under a Matrimonial Contract, to an old Mr. Miers, for $200 a year and a Challenge. The handsome
Mr. Jarvis died very suddenly, and poor Charlotte White is in a deep consumption. It is probable that money will in about a month, when I need not tell you. It will give me much satisfaction to obey any commands with which you and Mr. Mead may honor. My dear Madam.

Your much obliged,
and very sincere,
Humble Serv. D. Reger

I shall enclose a letter from New York to Mr. Mead; my congratulations to him on the recovery of his gallbladder stomach. The second of Mr. C. E. Moore's daughters is, strange to tell! Married to Dr. - Williamson of North Carolina. Married to him yesterday. Charleston July 16, '89.
