Isaac Dopson to John Kean, August 2, 1789

Isaac Dopson
As I propose to move the next season, I would be much obliged to you if you would inform me whether you will lease me your plantation on your neck for a term of years. I would be glad you would send me a few lines whether you intend leasing the place or what your price of land is, as I don’t mean to Plant a large quantity of land.

I am Sir

Indian Land

August 2, 1789

Your Obliged,

John Davenport
