Dear Sir,

I have lately seen Captain Bray, and mentioned to him the matter of the Attachment brought by him against Mr. Bray as Surviving Deputee of Savier near the town, directing to withdraw the suit, and to propose an accommodation by submitting all Accounts between the parties to an Arbitration of three merchant or other persons to be appointed by the parties — if you approve of this mode, I will thank you to give me Information.

I am respectfully,

Your very obedient
