

The Women's & Gender Studies Program Presents

Joan of Arc: History and Legend

Joan of Arc was a young medieval peasant who entered the highest levels of French royal society and helped turn the tide of the Hundred Years War against the English. But then she was tried and executed as a heretic only to be exonerated 25 years later. In her afterlife she has become a national and international symbol—both heroine and target. Let's untangle history from legend.

Christopher M. Bellitto, Ph.D.
Professor of History

Wednesday, March 20th
2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Miron Student Center 226

For more information or to reserve space of a class, please contact Dr. Bonillas at cbonilla@kean.edu